

The Cerritos News

CCPA offers February fun

The Cerritos Center for the Performing Arts (CCPA) has something to delight everyone in February, from Veronica Swift to The RUSH Tribute Project.

Kicking off the month is MOJO & The Bayou Gypsies. Celebrating 40 years in the music business, MOJO & the Bayou Gypsies brings authentic red-hot Louisiana fire to Cerritos. Its winning gumbo of Zydeco and Cajun music, flavored with Rock and the Blues, has been certified by the Louisiana Music Hall of Fame. If you're looking for some fun, the "Chicago Tribune" says this outfit will "provide a good time." Tickets start at $50 for the 8 p.m. show on Saturday, February 1.

Enjoy a nostalgic afternoon with The Drifters, The Platters, & Cornell Gunter's Coasters as Cerritos salutes these Rock & Roll Hall of Fame groups. All three were instrumental in creating the Rock 'n' Roll/Doo-Wop sound: The Drifters ("Under the Boardwalk," "This Magic Moment," "On Broadway"); The Platters ("Only You," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "The Great Pretender"); and Cornell Gunter's Coasters ("Charlie Brown," "Yakety Yak," "Poison Ivy"). Tickets cost $62 for this 3 p.m. performance on Sunday, February 2.

Composer Rob Kapilow returns to explore one of Robert Schumann's greatest works for solo piano, a masterpiece shrouded in secrecy: "Fantasie in C, Op.17." In a spirited Q&A, Kapilow studies the work, providing audiences with a fresh approach to the piece. A lively Q&A concludes the evening. The performance is sponsored by George & Bev Ray. Tickets are $60 to this 7:30 p.m. show on Wednesday, February 5.

Get ready for an evening of music with vocal icon Linda Eder. This genre-bending vocalist is known for her performance as Lucy Harris in "Jekyll & Hyde: The Gothic Musical Thriller" as well as solo recordings of "Someone Like You," "A New Life," "Vienna," and more. Tickets start at $50 for this added show at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 6.

Experience Veronica Swift's new eponymously titled album LIVE! This album is a masterful coming-out story filled with the virtuosic brilliance, interpretive ingenuity, bracing songwriting, and keen arrangements Swift is known for. Simply put, Swift is not only one of the most dazzling singers to emerge in her generation, she's one of the most versatile. Don't miss your chance to hear songs like "Closer," "I Am What I Am," "In the Moonlight," and more. Ticket prices start at $54 for this 7:30 p.m. performance on Wednesday, February 12.

"The New York Times" called "Dear Evan Hansen" a "Breathtaking knockout of a musical." This performance is an intimate and poignant story about mental illness, the fragility of life, and the human need for connection with each other. A high-schooler who always feels like he's on the outside looking in, Evan finally gets what so many of us are searching for – the chance to fit in. This production won six

Tony Awards (including for "Best Musical" and "Best Score"), a Grammy Award, and an Olivier Award. Recommended for ages 12 and up. This musical will call the CCPA home for three days, starting on Friday, February 14 at 8 p.m. and Saturday, February 15 at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. The final performance is at 2 p.m. on Sunday, February 16. Tickets start at $54.

Good things come to those who Wait! See '80s Rocker John Waite when he takes the stage to play his greatest hits, including the No. One Grammy-nominated "Missing You," "Isn't It Time," "When I See You Smile," and "If Anybody Had a Heart." Power Rock band Tommy Tutone opens the show with a string of greatest hits, including "Angel Say No" and the timeless catchy number "867-5309/Jenny." Tickets start at $44 for this Director's Pick show on Thursday, February 20.

Jam to the Queen of Soul's hits in this electrifying tribute to Aretha Franklin. "R.E.S.P.E.C.T. – A celebration of the Music of Aretha Franklin" features a live band and vocalists that deliver her iconic songs that forever reshaped the music landscape and American culture of the era, including "Natural Woman," "Think," "I Knew You Were Waiting for Me," "Chain of Fools," and her signature hit "Respect." It's a journey of love, tragedy, courage, and triumphs of the legend, who "Rolling Stone" crowned "the greatest singer of all time." Get tickets now, starting at $54, for this 8 p.m. concert on Friday, February 21.

"Rhythm India" takes audiences on a journey of dance and celebration through "Bollywood & Beyond." Experience the vibrant costumes, dynamic music, and soulful grooves of the "ghungroo" dancing bells in a production created by award-winning choreographer Joya Kazi, whose "artistic voice speaks to the rhythms of Indian dance, ranging from commercial musicals to classical, folk and traditional forms," raved "Next Pittsburgh." Tickets start at $40 for this 8 p.m. show on Saturday, February 22.

Come feel the "RUSH" of songs such as "Lime-light" and "Tom Sawyer" at the CCPA at 7 p.m. on Sunday, February 23. The RUSH Tribute Project pays homage to the Rock group's high-energy, iconic music and concerts. In a nod to the band, The RUSH Tribute Project uses vintage instruments, multi-camera projections, and state-of-the-art lighting to re-create the rush and stage magic of the Rock & Roll Hall of Famers. Tickets start at $39.

"Glide" magazine called Jazz trumpeter-vocalist-composer Jumaane Smith "ultra-talented!" The musician has toured with Michael Bublé and has performed on five Grammy-winning records, two Emmy-nominated television performances, and in Steven Spielberg's "West Side Story." "Downbeat" magazine praised his "unique and irresistibly creative voice!" Jumaane Smith returns to the CCPA at 8 p.m. on Friday, February 28. Tickets start at $50.

Get tickets at cerritoscenter.com or by calling the Ticket Office at (562) 916-8500. ■

Annual Festival of Friendship is February 1

Celebrate Cerritos' rich cultural diversity at the City's annual Festival of Friendship on Saturday, February 1 from noon to 4 p.m. at Los Cerritos Center. The City of Cerritos and the Let Freedom Ring Committee, in conjunction with the Los Cerritos Center, are presenting the event.

The Festival of Friendship will feature a variety of cultural performances on stages in front of Forever 21 and the former Sears building, where local cultural groups will showcase songs and dances.

Special commemorative gifts will be available at each stage while supplies last. For more information, call the City's Recreation Services Division at (562) 916-1254. ■

City to observe Presidents' Day

Cerritos City Hall, the City Clerk's Office, Cerritos Library, Cerritos Senior Center at Pat Nixon Park, and the Cerritos Center for the Performing Arts Box Office will be closed on Monday, February 17 in observance of Presidents' Day. All park facilities will maintain regular hours. Trash collection schedules will not be affected. ■

Community Safety Committee Meetings to be broadcast live on Cerritos TV3 and YouTube

Community Safety Committee Meetings will now broadcast live on Cerritos TV3 and the City's YouTube channel following recent direction by the Cerritos City Council. In addition, the meetings will now be held in the Cerritos City Council Chamber.

The Community Safety Committee meets at 7 p.m. on the third Wednesday of each odd-numbered month.

The Community Safety Committee educates, informs, and provides assistance to the community with regard to public safety issues. Responsibilities of the Committee include acting as advisors to the City Council in matters related to crime prevention, traffic, and pedestrian safety. The Community Safety Committee also supports and promotes crime-prevention awareness throughout the community through programs such as Neighborhood Watch.

For more information, please contact the Community Safety Division at (562) 916-1266. ■

City Council approves Strategic Plan

The City of Cerritos is moving forward with a new Strategic Plan to guide the City's long-term initiatives and elevate services to residents, businesses, and staff.

The Cerritos City Council approved the Strategic Plan on December 12, 2024, which includes eight overarching goals and implementing objectives focused on community safety, economic development, and more.

During the planning process, a series of meetings were conducted with City Council, staff, and community stakeholders, including two in-person community sessions. Cerritos staff, residents, and the business community were also invited to share their feedback through an online questionnaire.

Upon analysis of staff and community feedback and in consultation with City Council and executive leadership, the City's consultant, Tripepi Smith, identified the following Strategic Plan goals for Cerritos:

1. Enhance Public Safety
2. Attract and Retain a High Skilled Work Force
3. Assess and Maintain Infrastructure
4. Strengthen Economic Development
5. Improve Technology Resources
6. Focus on Fiscal Transparency and Sustainability
7. Improve Community Communications
8. Ensure Continued Excellence in Community Recreation and Community Programming

Additional information on the Strategic Plan will be shared in future editions of the Cerritos News and on the City's website, cerritos.gov. ■

Cerritos Voter Update: Upcoming State and Municipal Concurrent Elections

Cerritos voters will soon have the opportunity to participate in separate elections at the State and City levels.

The recently called California State Senate District 36 Special Primary Election will be conducted on Tuesday, February 25, 2025. The next Cerritos General Municipal Election will take place on Tuesday, March 4, 2025. Cerritos voters will receive separate ballots for each election, and should pay special attention to the completion and placement of vote-by-mail ballots in their appropriate envelopes.

Important dates and information for both elections are as follows:

State Senate District 36 (Special Primary) Tuesday, February 25, 2025

Registration Deadline: Monday, February 10, 2025 to receive a vote-by-mail ballot.

Voting Period: Monday, January 27 – Tuesday, February 25, 2025, 8 p.m.

Voters are advised to carefully match the envelope with the Los Angeles County Registrar of Voters logo and mailing address with the ballot for the State Senate District 36 Special Primary Election.

For updated information on the State Senate Special Primary Election, visit: lavote.gov or call (800) 815-2666.

Cerritos General Municipal Election Tuesday, March 4, 2025

The next Cerritos General Municipal Election will take place on Tuesday, March 4, 2025. The ballot will feature races for three Cerritos City Council seats, for full four-year terms, and two proposed Charter Amendment Measures. Each active, registered Cerritos voter will receive a vote-by-mail ballot for this election pursuant to State law. No return postage is required. Voters are advised to carefully match the envelope with the City of Cerritos logo and mailing address with the ballot for the Cerritos General Municipal Election.

Scan the QR code to view election information at cerritos.gov/election2025

Voters will have several options, including an in-person voting experience, to cast their ballots. Those opting to vote in person should bring with them their vote-by-mail ballot.

Registration Deadline: Monday, February 17 to receive a vote-by-mail ballot.

Voting Period: Monday, February 3 – Tuesday, March 4, 2025, 8 p.m.

City Council Candidate names (with ballot designations) will be listed on the ballot in the order shown below.

For Member of the City Council – Vote for no more than three:

- Adrian Ayub – Entrepreneur
- Jennifer Hong - Businesswoman
- Hao (Ricky) Huynh – Information Technology Technician
- Esther Hwang – Nonprofit Program Manager
- Riaz Surti – E-commerce Businessman
- Mark E. Pulido – Retired Government Executive
- Rocky Pavone – Businessman/Financial Educator
- (Pat) Ashok Patnaik - Banker
- “JC” Jignesh Chokshi – Small Business Owner
- Sophia Tse – Member, ABCUSD Board of Education/Nurse

Cerritos voters will also decide two ballot measures on March 4, 2025 regarding modifications to generally clean up the City's Charter and whether voters shall approve any future changes to the City's General Municipal Election date. The questions on the March 4 ballot measures read as follows:

Measure J

Shall the Cerritos City Charter be amended to require that voter approval must be obtained for any future change to the City's general municipal election date, currently established as the first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each odd-numbered year, and make conforming amendments to the start date of each City Council member's term and selection date of the Mayor, relating thereto?

Measure K

Shall the Cerritos City Charter be amended to remove or modify provisions based on superseding and preemptive State law, increase Citywide operational efficiency by eliminating references to outdated business practices, and correct grammatical, punctuation, and spelling errors?
